The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by ICA Treasurer Mr. Deepak Jain, who thanked all participants for their valuable contributions and active participation

A consolidated list of roles and responsibilities, along with a set of Do's and Don'ts, was shared and handed over to all participants as a reference note.

Role and Responsibilities of State Representatives

- Continuous Communication: Maintain regular contact with members in respective chapters.
- WhatsApp Groups: Create and manage chapter groups with male and female representatives as admins for inclusivity.
- Educating Members: Actively inform members about ICA's welfare measures and the process to avail the same—insurance, health check-ups, financial assistance, and one-time benefits.
- Membership Fees: Encourage timely payment of the annual fee (₹1200/-) to sustain ICA's initiatives.
- Term Chapter Meeting: Organize a chapter meeting during your tenure at convenient locations to strengthen community bonds. Approved expenses like the venue and food per person will be borne by ICA. You can reach ICA office on further clarity on this.
- Membership Growth: Motivate eligible former players to join ICA, expanding reach and representation.
- Membership Criteria: Ensure applicants meet ICA's membership criteria. A "First Class Match" includes senior matches organized by BCCI (or WCAI prior to Nov 14, 2006 for women's cricket) recognized under the ICC Classification of Official Cricket.
    - Every 3 senior One Day limited-over matches (2-day games treated as limited-over) in BCCI tournaments count as one First Class match.
    - Every 5 senior Twenty20 matches in BCCI tournaments count as one First Class match.
    - Fractions are rounded off to the lower whole number.
- State Rep Certification: If ICA office is unable to verify the documents submitted for membership online and offline, they reach out to the State Reps for their certification. State Rep needs to verify eligibility of applicants by certifying their match participation in the playing XI. Exercise due diligence through references (e.g., captains during tenure), newspaper clippings, score sheets, etc. Take ownership of certifications, as ICA is accountable to the Registrar of Companies (ROC) for membership credibility.
- Member Demise Updates: Inform the ICA office promptly in case of the demise of any member so records can be updated and benefits extended to spouses of deceased members in due course.
- Feedback Loop: Collect member feedback and share with ICA office to improve welfare delivery.
